1. [] anti-aircraft guns were placed on hills near the Tafengman (126-41, 43-42) hydroelectric plant. There are three generators in operation, and some Soviets [] technicians are hired at the plant.

25X1

25X1

2. [] the coal mines in the Hsian (125-09, 42-54) area had a daily output of 2,400 tons. Approximately 200 Soviet advisers and technicians are in the area.

25X1

3. [] the Communist authorities in Peiping were moving all important industrial plants in North Manchuria to the Peian (126-17, 46-26), Taonan (122-52, 45-37), Tsitsihar, and Harbin areas; and all plants in South Manchuria to Northwest China.*

25X1

4. [] almost all Central Government and municipal organizations in Mukden and Changchun had been moved to rural areas. The Mukden Municipal government is at Changtu (124-01, 42-47). Only a few liaison offices are remaining in Mukden and Changchun and both cities are almost completely deserted.

25X1

5. [] the Huangkut'un (皇姑屯) Railway Factory and the railway construction factory (sic) were moved from Mukden to Tsitsihar, where they are housed in a school building near Tungku (東溝). [] the production rate of the factories was 50 percent of the former rate. PAI Tish-yen (白鐵岩), head of the two factories, is consulting with Soviets on expansion of the plant.
